To the saints gathered unto the precious Name of our Lord Jesus Christ elsewhere, beloved brethren greetings:

We recently enjoyed chapter 21 of Revelation in our local reading meeting. It gives us a symbolic description of the Heavenly Jerusalem, the Lamb's wife. It is the church in her millennial glory and administrative capacity. It is also a reminder to us as to what her present character should have been—holy, heavenly, reflecting the glory of God, shining as a light in this world; separated, yet with doors, though guarded; the habitation of God in the Spirit. The church has failed in her present responsibility. As in the days of Nehemiah, the walls are "broken down, and the gates thereof [are] consumed with fire" (Neh. 2:13). Despite this ruin, we have instruction and encouragement for such a day. The Heavenly Jerusalem has a single street: "the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass" (Rev. 21:21). The original may be translated plaza. The picture is a vivid one; the city is built around a plaza. Even in her millennial glory, the fellowship of the saints, gathered about the Lamb, is central to the church—fellowship is more than social interaction, it is communion. With this in mind, we would invite our brethren together for mutual "edification, and exhortation, and comfort" (1 Cor. 14:3). To "strengthen the things which remain" (Rev. 3:2). "Building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost" (Jude 20).

Trusting that we have the Lord's mind, we extend this invitation to our brethren to join with us for two days at the end of August. Our time together would be for prayer, occupation with our Lord Jesus Christ over God's precious Word, the remembrance of our Lord in His death, preaching the gospel, and for fellowship.

Lord willing, all meetings will be held at the Vivos Institute near Denver International Airport. This is a change from previous years. Details concerning the conference location and the hotel are provided on the accompanying sheet. Meetings will begin with prayer at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, August 29, 2025, and continue through Lord's Day, August 31.
