To those gathered together to The Lord's name elsewhere,

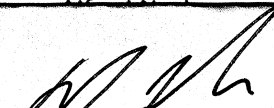

Dear Brethren,

The Lord opened the eyes of the disciples (on the road to Emmaus) that they might understand the (Old Testament) scriptures that spoke of Him; that He was to suffer, die and rise from the dead the third day. On the day of Pentecost the ascended Christ sent The Holy Spirit to in-dwell those same witnesses and to unite them into one body. In the book of Acts we see the unfolding of God's heart and purpose in gathering together in one Jews and gentiles into one body based upon the work of Christ on Calvary's cross. Those early believers continued steadfastly in the apostle's doctrine and in fellowship and the breaking of bread and in prayers. Two thousand years have passed since those early days and we still have the same resources as they did as we await his return. We trust that The Lord has opened the door again this year for us to invite you to be with us on the weekend following Thanksgiving in Brewer Maine for ministry of the word of God, fellowship, prayers and to remember the Lord in His death. Our desire is that we would redeem the time that remains, that the time would be for building up, the teaching of sound doctrine, for encouragement in the path of faith, for the strengthening of relationships in Christ and that our lord would be honored in our coming together.
