To the saints gathered to the precious Name of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Beloved brethren, it is our joy to be able to once again invite our brethren to be together again for a time of fellowship, the reading and ministry of God's Word through the Holy Spirit, and for the remembrance of our blessed Lord in His death.

The events of the past year have truly shown us our weakness and how dependent we must always be on the Lord to guide us and reveal to us His mind in all things. We also have seen the need for the practical expression of the "unfeigned love for the brethren" 1 Peter 1:22. As the day approaches when we will be called out of this scene to be with our blessed Lord, how clearly we can see the enemy working to divide our hearts and weaken the testimony of those gathered simply to the Name of the Lord Jesus.

With this in mind, our desire for the Labor Day weekend is to have this focus:

1. "Strengthen the things that remain" Revelation 3:2
2. "Comfort yourselves together, and edify one another" 1 Thessalonians 5:11
3. "Love one another with a pure heart fervently" 1 Peter 1:22
4. "Provoke unto love and to good works" Hebrews 10:24
5. "Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His name" 1 Chronicles 16:29
6. "Do all to the glory of God" 1 Corinthians 10:31

Lord willing, the meetings will begin with prayer on Saturday, September 5 at 9:30 AM CDT and end with lunch on Monday, September 7 at noon. Please note that the meeting venue and the hotel have changed from previous years.
