To those gathered together to The Lord's name elsewhere

Dear brethren,

What a tremendous thing it is to have been brought into the church (ecclesia), the body of Christ through His love and grace and to have been gathered to His name through the Spirit of God. Though this is a "scene of (spiritual) drought and dearth," He has given us "all things that pertain to life and Godliness" (2 Peter 1.3). Our Lord has been rejected from this earth and is not here, yet we experience His presence when we meet together in weakness; how amazing!

As we have contemplated the grace and mercy that we experience, we in Palmyra are very thankful that The Lord has opened the door and has given us the liberty to invite our brethren from other assemblies to be with us again this year over the American Thanksgiving holiday weekend for special meetings and times of fellowship.

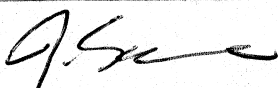

The Lord willing, the meetings will begin on Friday November 27th at 7:00 pm at the Palmyra meeting room (285 Madawaska Rd. Palmyra, Maine) and continue on Saturday and Lord's Day (28th and 29th) at Jeff's Catering and Event Center (15 Event Center Way, Brewer Maine). Hotel accommodations will be at the Bangor Holiday Inn (404 Odlin Rd. Bangor). If you plan to attend please register at www.bibleconferenceregistration.com/brewer/registration on or by November 12th. If you have any questions please contact Paul and Michelle Renaud at (207) 512-6491. Children under 17 must be accompanied by a responsible adult. All other communications should be addressed to Alfred Nash, PO Box 161, Palmyra Maine 04965. We value your prayers and look forward to being together here, if not in heaven.
